Marriage Notes for LAVINA BYBEE and WILLIAM SMITH:

On May 24, 1839, Mr. Smith was united in marriage with Lovina, daughter of T. T. Bybee, the ceremony taking place at the residence of the bride, and the entire neighborhood being present. The groom being but twenty years old, Mr. Bybee became security to the County Clerk before he could obtain the license. The young couple made their home in Utica until September, when the wife sickened and was taken to her parents' roof. There she breathed her last October 3, after a wedded life of but four months and ten days. After having lived a widower until November 19, 1840, Mr. Smith married Elizabeth C., daughter of Elijah Wilcoxen, and a cousin to his first wife. This lady shared his cares and privations until April 4, 1863, when she too passed away at the age of thirty-eight years, seven months and five days. This marriage was blessed by the birth of five sons and seven daughters, four of whom died when quite young.

On May 6, 1866, Mr. Smith was again married, his bride being Miss Abbie Mason, who has borne him two sons and two daughters.

On another page of this volume will be found a lithographic portrait of Mr. Smith. (Portrait & Biographical Album of Fulton County, 1890, pages 513-516, submitted by Danni Hopkins)

Marriage Notes for LEONARD JENNINGS and OLGA BOYKIN:

Olga was only 15 when she married Leonard Jennings. He was a friend of her father's and had lived next door to them in Oregon. Leonard had worked with her dad at the ship building yard. It was Joe Boykin who got Leonard to become a Mason in the Masonic Order. Love letters from one to the other at the time of their marriage show they were really struck by the love bug. She finished her high school years and graduated with honors.
